SOUTHERN GROWN

ROSES

BULBS AND SHRUBS

J. E. JACKSON
Piedmont Greenhouses
Gainesville, Ga.

ROSES JACKSON'S ROSES are on their own roots, grown in pots, in cool, clean, well-ventilated greenhouses, and are ready to set out at any time except the most severe winter months. They have strong, active growing roots at all times and make amazingly rapid growth when transplanted into the open ground.

BULBS We direct your attention to the Bulbs which we offer on pages 13 to 18. These are supplied us by the leading growers in this country and abroad, from their best stock.

HARDY FLOWERING SHRUBS

Abelia Grandiflora. A broad-leaved evergreen with graceful, drooping stems and dark, glossy leaves that assume a metallic sheen in winter. From the middle of May until frost, this plant produces an immense quantity of small, bell-shaped white flowers in clusters. 25 and 50 cts. each.

Buddleia. (Butterfly Bush.) Tall grower, flowers a deep shade of violet; blooms from June until frost. Cut to within 12 inches of ground each year in late winter to make a more shapely plant and give more blossoms the following summer. 10 cts. each, $1. per doz.; 4-in. pot size, 25 cts. each, $2.50 per doz.; open-ground plants, 50 and 75 cts. each.

Gardenia—(Cape Jasmine). Very popular evergreen shrubs with bright, glossy foliage. Hardy as far north as Virginia and Tennessee. They do well in almost any well-drained soil. Large fragrant white flowers are freely produced from middle of May until fall. Open ground plants, 8-in. 35 cts. each.

Hydrangea paniculata grandiflora. Produces in July immense panicles of pure white flowers, which last for several weeks, a most valuable shrub. It should be grown in rich ground and cut back severely during winter and will then produce magnificent flower-heads. 50 and 75c.

Hypericum Moserianum. Beautiful dwarf shrub, 1 to 2 ft. in height. In this section usually evergreen, with dark green leaves. Large, single, golden-yellow flowers are 2 inches in diameter and resemble a wild rose. Effective planted in masses. Blooms from early May throughout the entire summer. From 2½ in. pots, 15 cts., $1.00 doz.; 2-yr. from 4-in. pots, 25 cts. each; open ground plants, heavy, 50 and 75 cts. each.

Jasminum Floridum—(Jasmine) A very desirable variety with flexuous branches and very pretty foliage. Golden-yellow flowers half an inch in diameter produced during summer. Hardy as far north as Washington. 18-24-inch plants, 25 cts. each.

Jasminum Primulinum. A graceful, hardy, drooping shrub with dark green bark and leaves; bright yellow flowers freely produced in early January and continuing for some time.

An improvement upon Jasminum Nudiflorum.
18-24-in., 25 cts. each.

Lagerstroemia. (Crape Myrtle) A popular shrub, or small tree, which blooms in profusion throughout the summer. We offer this in crimson, 18 to 24 inch plants, 60 cts. each.

Salix Discolor. (Pussywillow). The well-known Pussywillow with silky catkins which precede the leaves in early spring. 18-24-in., 25 cts. each; 3-4-in., 50 cts. each.

Spiraea Anthony Waterer. (Anthony Waterer Spirea.) A remarkable free-flowering shrub, with upright branches. Attains a height of about three feet. Leaves bright green, with frequent variegations of yellow. If blooms are cut off as soon as they begin to fade, the plant will bloom the entire season. Makes a low-growing hedge. Open ground plants, 35 cts., and 50 cts. each.

Spiraea Billardii. Bright pink flowers in dense panicles; fine for cutting; a medium height shrub for massing in the border. Open ground plants, 35 cts. and 50 cts. each.

HARDY VINES

Clematis paniculata. Japanese Virgin's Bower. The most useful and beautiful of hardy vines; a luxuriant grower, profuse bloomer, with fine foliage. The white flowers are very pretty, fragrant, and resemble snowflakes in late summer. Strong plants, in pots, 15 cts. each, 4 for 50 cts.; 2-yr. plants now in pots, 25 cts. each, $2.50 per doz.

Hedera Helix. (English Ivy.) This is the popular, well known, hardy variety, used extensively for covering dwellings and stone walls. Small plants in bowls, or wall-vases, make graceful house vines during the winter. 25c each.
